want to place the names on the floor. This is what happened. I detest this type of activity.

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: Well if there are dishonorable people operating why don't you name them?

SENATOR KOCH: I don't think that's necessary. I'll tell you in private.

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: Well I think it could be necessary for the public record. My question to you is, you're employed by school districts to come in to exclude only school districts from a bill that includes everybody else. I would think if you were going to address the issue honestly that . . . we talk about whether it's desirable policy or not desirable policy for any governmental entity. I don't understand where you get your special justification for only school districts. So I'd oppose the amendment.

SENATOR KOCH: I don't believe, Senator Cavanaugh, that all employees of this state are organized such as schools are organized. They've been under our negotiations for about 7 or 8 years now. I just believe that this type of negotiation should be done at the table and not placed in the law.

PRESIDENT: Senator Nichol.

SENATOR NICHOL: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, Senator Lewis said a minute ago that city councils and city employees negotiate, that county employees negotiate, that isn't always true. They don't where I live. I know other places where that isn't true. Some places they do, I know, but some places they don't. That's the way that is.

PRESIDENT: Senator Barnett.

SENATOR BARNETT: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, I would hope Senator Koch wasn't referring to me when he said somebody's being dishonest, because I put the amendment on that bill and I done it under good intentions. If he did, he's liable to lose me for a long time. I was under the impression that when we put that amendment on there that we were doing the right thing. I'm now confused. I said yesterday that we should support the issue. Now I'm confused and don't know whether to or not because it does take out the school boards and leaves everybody else in a different position. It really causes a lot of doubt in my mind as to what to do. I tried to listen to both sides of the argument. I guess I have to ask Senator Koch a question. Is he ready?

SENATOR KOCH: First of all Senator Barnett I was not eluding to you in the previous remarks.

SENATOR BARNETT: That's a good answer.

SENATOR KOCH: I will defend your name.

SENATOR BARNETT: I guess I will have to ask you, do we have a problem now with school boards and school teachers? Could you give us this answer, or would it be better addressed to somebody else? Do we have the problem where school boards do not give the teachers the right to deduct different things from their salary? Do we have that problem now?
